CIRCULAR No. 18/2021

Dear Member,

UPDATED COVID19 PANDEMIC MEASURES REPLACING PREVIOUS MEASURES

We inform that the Controller of the PNG COVID-19 National Pandemic Response, and Commissioner of Police, David Manning has issued twelve updated COVID-19 Pandemic Measures replacing the previous measures. Notable updates include the following:

- All Gambling Venues will reopen on Thursday 20th May 2021, but subject to strict Covid19 Safety Guidelines issued by the Controller in relation to operating gambling activities and services.
- All licensed takeaway liquor shops may reopen for business, but they are not allowed to open on Fridays, Saturdays and Sundays.
- All sporting activities involving more than four (4) persons may not happen, unless exempted by the Controller.
- The Controller has emphasized the importance of Mandatory Mask Wearing as per Measure No.10. All business houses are encouraged to take note of and enforce them at your workplaces.
- Non-compliance can result in penalties being imposed under the National Pandemic Act 2020.

We attach the Pandemic Measure Numbers One to Twelve herewith for your further reference and information. Should you have queries that the Federation can assist with, please do not hesitate to contact this Office.

Yours Sincerely,

Florence Willie
Executive Director
